

BES

British Museum

Tanach Tour

We are offering a very different tour in London designed to excite and fascinate you.

Lindsey Taylor-Guthartz is a Teaching Fellow at LSJS. She has spoken at BES on numerous occasions. Lindsey has run the British Museum tours for 3 years. She studied archaeology at Cambridge University and the Hebrew University and lived in Israel for seventeen years. She is particularly interested in making classical Jewish text accessible to all.

Fee: £20 per person

Strictly limited places on a first come first served basis

LSJS

united synagogue

ק"ק בנסת ישראל

Israel in the shadow of ancient super powers

Founded in 1753, the British Museum is one of the greatest museums in the world. It houses countless treasures from the biblical era. But how do you find them and what is the significance of each?

This tour is designed to transform your understanding of the Bible's ancient texts and unique artifacts. With captivating personal guidance from Lindsey you will gain insight and understanding into the most interesting and fascinating artifacts about Judaism displayed in the museum.

If you ever thought a museum tour sounded boring come along and be proved wrong!

Sunday 19th July 11am – 2pm at the British Museum

Nearest tube: Tottenham Court Road

Please book by 5th July 2009, for more info or to book please call either:

Katrina Bradley 07810 567868

kmb Bradley@sky.com or

Yael Jackson (020) 8953 2186

yaeljackson@hotmail.com